

GARFIELD THREATENS TO SEIZE COAL MINES

Warns Michigan Operators of Penalty for Failure to Sell at Prices He Orders.

ORDERS TO COKE PRODUCERS

If They Evade Figures Set, They Will Be Prosecuted Under Lever Law, Which Provides $5,000 Fine and Two Years' Imprisonment.

WASHINGTON, November 24.—Fuel Administrator Garfield made two definite threats to-day to invoke the most severe penalties of the Lever law. He warned Michigan miners that unless they sell at the prices prescribed by the administration, the government will seize and operate their mines. He also warned producers of coke that if they evade the prices set, they would be prosecuted under the sections which provide a $5,000 fine and two years' imprisonment. Important orders for New England coal supplies for war industries were also issued.

The warning to the Michigan miners was contained in a telegram to W. K. Prudden, state fuel administrator, who complained that some of the miners were refusing to ship coal at the government-fixed prices. Mr. Garfield wired:

"If Michigan operators refuse to ship in accordance with prices fixed by you under my authority, I will take possession of the mines, serve notice to this effect, if necessary, prefacing same by statement that action is by order of the United States fuel administrator."

Warning to coke producers was based on the report which reached Washington that manufacturers were charging the $1 differential allowed on seventy-two-hour selected foundry coke, on all seventy-two-hour coke.

Dr. Garfield also ordered that coke producers in New England might charge for their product made from coal shipped to New England an additional price equal to the freight rate from the competing barge districts. Mines under contract to supply New England points by water are directed to turn over their full monthly quota by these routes. Had this order not been issued, the fuel administration fears that there would have been great difficulty in supplying important industries engaged in this area on war contracts for the government.

Coal for New England, via Baltimore and Hampton Roads, is given priority over all coal except that commandeered for the railroads. The coal administrator for New England, James J. Storow, is also given authority to require persons and firms with a surplus supply in those States to sell their surplus to others who may need it. Reports of all New England coal contracts must be made to the fuel administrator within ten days.

FACES MANY CHARGES

J. W. Anderson Alleged to Have Violated State and Federal Prohibition Laws.

J. W. Anderson, 11½ South Third Street, a chauffeur, is facing an array of charges for violating the prohibition laws. He was arrested last night by Policeman Brennan at 1211 West Broad Street with three suit cases containing whisky. A hearing in a case in which he is defendant is set for November 29, in Police Court, where he is charged with storing five gallons of whisky at his home. The hearing on the charge preferred last night, Justice Maurice continued until November 30. Anderson giving bail for his appearance.

Officers of the Department of Justice also arrested Anderson yesterday and upon being arraigned before Commissioner Plechinger, Anderson gave bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance next Wednesday to answer the charge of violating the Reed bone-dry law. Labels on bottles which Anderson is said to have had last night indicated that the liquor came from Baltimore.

ELMER HOPKINS ON TRIAL FOR KILLING COLE BROTHERS

Youth Alleged to Have Killed Men While Returning From Circus.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., November 24.—Elmer Hopkins, a Halifax County youth, charged with the murder of George and Cleveland Cole last summer, will be put on trial next Tuesday at Houston.

The young man killed the brothers, it is alleged, after a circus performance at South Boston. Returning to his home driving a wagon in company with a young woman, he became involved in an argument with the Coles, and when George clambered into the wagon, it is claimed, Hopkins shot him. Cleveland Cole, going to his brother's rescue, was shot and instantly killed, both men being dropped in the body of the wagon.

After a few hours of liberty, Hopkins was captured and taken to Houston jail. That night the South Houston home guard was called out, threats being heard against the youth's life.

DISCUSS FEED CONTROL

Members of Convention Express Thanks to Richmond Grain Exchange and to Commissioner Percell.

It was unanimously agreed at the meeting of the Association of Feed Control Officials of the United States at the Jefferson Hotel yesterday that the most advantageous thing that could be done for the increased production of feed and the improvement of the feed question along all lines would be a closer co-operation between the feed dealers and the Feed Control Officials' Association, both of whom should work in harmony for the accomplishment of the one purpose—feed control and improvement. The convention in session yesterday morning listened to reports from the executive committee and engaged in general discussion as to how to improve the feed situation.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the Richmond people for their hospitality, and especially expressing their appreciation of the cordial reception given the delegates by the Richmond Grain Exchange, State Food and Dairy Commissioner Percell, who tendered a vote of thanks as chairman of the reception committee. The selection of the next place of meeting is left with the executive committee.

The delegates to the convention gave it as their opinion that they believed that each one was benefited by the discussion, and hoped that better results would be brought about by concerted action on the part of all interested in feed improvement and control.

EXCESS OF SPIRITS PUTS SAILORS UNDER ARREST

Try to Settle Championship of Battleship Vermont in Room at Richmond Hotel.

Excess of spirits—physical and otherwise—carried six sailor lads into the First Precinct Police Station last night about 7:30 o'clock on the charge of being disorderly in and about the premises of Hotel Richmond. Two of the tars claim pugilistic distinction, and when police responded to a summons from the hotel office, they found the claimants to the lightweight and heavyweight prize ring championships of the battleship Vermont vying with one another in their hotel room. Sergeant C. M. Johnson and Officers Beard and Matthews had some little trouble in towing their cargo of six into the station-house.

The young fellows will be held until to-day, when some arrangement will be made for the payment of their fines, when they will be released in order that they may return to their duties aboard ship.

Booker officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Krause, of Lynchburg. Mr. and Mrs. Corwell went for a bridal trip. They will reside at Pulaski.

SENTENCE COMMUTED TO LONG IMPRISONMENT

Death Penalty Had Been Imposed Upon Enlisted Man of American Army for Desertion.

[By Associated Press.]
WASHINGTON, November 24.—While the death penalty has been imposed upon an enlisted man of the American army, who is of German birth, on his conviction of desertion, it was indicated to-day at the War Department that the finding of the court-martial would be overruled, and sentence commuted to a long term of imprisonment.

The soldier was stationed at Panama, and there appears to be little doubt that after his desertion he endeavored to make his way to Germany, presumably for military service there. He was charged only with desertion, and the question of his intention to join the enemy forces was not developed at his trial.

It has not been the custom in any army, even in time of war, to impose the death penalty for desertion, unless the act was in the face of the enemy, or unless there was evidence to show that the purpose of the offender was more than merely an attempt to evade military service. The view of the court-martial which tried the soldier in question evidently was that there was intent to join the enemy, but as that is not made clear in the trial proceedings, the commanding officer of the Panama garrison recommended the court be overruled and a term of imprisonment be substituted for execution.

Justifiable Pride

We admit that we are particularly proud of the very comprehensive display of

Dining Room Suites

we are displaying just now, but—

When one has exerted every effort towards providing a pleasing setting for the holiday spreads in scores and scores of homes—and won—

Does it seem any more than their rightful due that they should be allowed to do some "rooting" after the game is over—

Especially when the score is an enviable one—worthy of civic pride?

Anyway, we don't feel that we have any apologies to offer for a pride we believe to be justifiable, and—

We, also, believe that, when once you've realized just what an unusual display this really is, you will be even more lavish in your words of appreciation.

We are not hinting, mind you, but we would appreciate having you study some of these suites and then voicing your opinion.

Will you not do that—soon?
